Attractions

There are many attractions here. It is a place where ancient monuments meet modern tourist base. The modern part of the city includes modern hotels, guesthouses, restaurants, taverns and sandy beaches with great views over the ancient rocky peninsula. There are many small Byzantine Orthodox churches and houses characteristic for the Black Sea building engineering. There are webs of small and winding streets, which create an unforgettable climate of the past era.

The city, despite the large number of historical places and monuments [12 monasteries are on the UNESCO list!], is not a museum in literal sense. Mild climate, sandy beaches, fresh air and cozy restaurants and cafes make Nessebar a special a unique place perfect for spending summer holidays.

Places and things worth seeing:

TWO WINDMILLS - at the peninsula entrance. They are the symbol of the city.

DEFENSIVE WALL - surround the old city. This one is a Greek copy, built in the 6th century by the Romans

MUSEUM OF ARCHEOLOGY - beautiful exhibitions of pottery, anchors and other Thracian and Roman objects. Leaflets and folders in English and French available for the visitors.

MUSEUM OF ETHNOGRAPHY - seated in a beautiful building built in the times of the Bulgarian national revival. Exhibitions of national costumes and weaving history.

CHRIST PANTHOCRATOR ORTHODOX CHURCH - erected in the 4th century, during the reign of Tsar Ivan Alexander II. Houses an art gallery where you can buy city guide and map.

JOHN THE BAPTIST ORTHODOX CHURCH - built in the 10th century, has been renovated a couple of times. Wonderful 14th and 17th century frescos. Houses an art gallery. Worth recommending.

THE SAVIOUR ORTHODOX CHURCH - the most beautiful 17th century frescos in Nessebar. Open Monday to Friday, 10:00 a.m. - 01:30 p.m., 02:00 p.m. - 05:30 p.m., Saturdays and Sundays from 10:00 a.m. to 01:30 p.m.

THE MICHAEL AND GABRIEL THE ARCHANGELS ORTHODOX CHURCH - 12th century. Interesting but unavailable for visitors.

ST PARASKEVA ORTHODOX CHURCH - next to the Michael and Gabriel the Archangels Orthodox church. Built in the 14th century. Houses a restaurant.

BASILICA [THE SEASIDE BASILICA] - in the heart of the peninsula. Built in the 5th century. Used to be the religious center of the autonomous city. Impressive ruins prove its beauty and greatness.

ST THEODORE ORTHODOX CHURCH - at the end of the peninsula. Built in the 13th century. Only two parts have remained - the northern and southern parts.

ST STEPHEN THE NEW METROPOLY ORTHODOX CHURCH - open daily from 09:00 a.m. to 01:00 p.m., and from 02:00 p.m. to 06:00 p.m. Closed outside the season. One of the few churches that have remained in good condition. Almost the whole area of the internal walls is covered with the 16th century frescos and mosaics.

THE OLD METROPOLY ORTHODOX CHURCH - located at the crossing of Mitropolska and Slavianska streets. The three-aisle basilica erected on the ruins of the ancient Apollo temple in the 5th century.

THE ST JOHN ALITURGETOS ORTHODOX CHURCH - built in the 16th century, also called the 'unsacred' because no service has ever been said there.
