Description

Do you dream of the romantic atmosphere of the seashore, combined with the exotic scenery of virgin mountains covered with thick forests? And what about the magic of ancient pagan rituals mixed with Christian traditions? Of a long warm summer by the sea together with the healing power of pure mineral springs? Of the entertainment a true resort can offer, but also of relaxation without the noise, pollution and stress of "civilisation"?

You don't have to visit a solitary Pacific island to gain access to all this. You can have it in the south of the Bulgarian Black Sea coast at about 500km distance from Sofia, at the heart of the hottest European tourist destination. You can have your own holiday retreat for a lifetime away from the noisy and hurried modern world.

This is offered to you by the luxurious "Vris" apart-hotel complex in the town of Tzarevo - one of the most beautiful and untouched places on the Bulgarian seaside shore. Your own paradise awaits you at the centre of the town, few steps away from the beach with a magnificent view of the sea and surrounded by a forest and a park.

Attractions

There are four beautiful beaches here. Larger ones offer all sorts of attractions. Arapia is the surfers' paradise. Children will enjoy the seaside park where they can participate in all sorts of games or go to a summer funfair. There are three discos and a special cultural program prepared every year for all - the children, folklore and rap fans. Tzarevo has many restaurants and cafes. You can go on an evening walk on the breakwater and to the old part of the city, where a small orthodox church built in 1825 stands on a cape high above the sea.
