Description

Edeland Ridge is favorably located in South-western Bulgaria on a 16000 sq. m site. It lies in the outskirts of the Pirin National Park, cozily sheltered at the foot of Pirin, the most beautiful mountain in the country with impressive Alpine character and untouched nature. In the North arise the peaks of Rila - the highest mountain on the Balkan peninsula.

The splendid estate consists of four residential buildings with 360 fully furnished luxury apartments. It includes a four star SPA and Wellness hotel, all facilities and services preferentially available to the apartment owners.

The resort is only ten minutes by car from Bansko, voted as Europe's most improved ski resort by the Great Skiing and Snowboarding Guide 2006, the one with most sophisticated appliances and longest ski runs in Eastern Europe.

Edeland Ridge is designed in the classic Alpine architecture style, making it fit perfectly in the environment. The steep slope roofs are a natural extension of the silhouette of the rocky peaks of Pirin. The stone and wood facings contribute for its organic link with the surroundings. All the buildings are oriented towards the incredible panorama of Pirin and Rila mountains. The inner courtyard is surrounded by a broad natural park with rockeries, tall pine trees, ponds and a water stream.
